Data Protection

We inform you that your personal data will be stored and processed as far as this is necessary for the implementation of our volunteer programmeme. United Evangelical Mission (UEM) is entitled to pass on data to Engagement Global gGmbH and by doing so to other parties. The latter include offices directly entrusted with the implementation of weltwärts, the German Federal Ministry for Development and Cooperation (BMZ) and other government agencies. The data is used for the proper processing and accounting of the approved measure, the safety of the volunteers in Germany, reporting to various federal offices and, if necessary, inviting volunteers to events within the framework of the weltwärts programmeme.

Furthermore, the data will not be passed on or sold to third parties. Access to the data is reserved for UEM employees.

Deviating from this, a transfer of personal data to third parties is only permitted, if they have been commissioned by UEM to perform (partial) tasks on behalf of UEM. In this case, third parties are subject to the same data protection policy as UEM.
