Call for Applications UEM South-South Volunteer Programme

Applications are welcome!

Closing date for submission is on 11 March 2022

The program

UEM has been running volunteer programs over the years, hereby promoting exchange for youths between member churches. In this framework, young Germans have been sent to church institutions in Africa and Asia under the North-South program. Recently also, young Africans and Asians have been sent to church institutions in Germany to volunteer for a year under the South-North program.

This year, we intend to continue with the South-South program involving youth in African and Asian churches. Therefore, youth from Africa and Asia will volunteer in Africa or Asia for one year in order to foster learning opportunities and promote intercultural exchange and sharing experiences with other Christians.

These volunteers will actively support the work in their hosting institution.

Who can apply?

All UEM members in Africa and Asia are invited to apply, their candidates should be active member of their church, ideally in youth leadership roles suitable to take over leadership roles in the future and enjoy the full support of the church, expressed by the church's endorsement from the head of the church.

Please find below the requirements for your selection:

- ✓ You are available from July 2022 – June 2023
- ✓ You must be an active member in your home congregation, such as, Sunday school teacher, youth group leader or others.
- ✓ You are between 18-28 years old and have finished at least secondary or tertiary education.
- ✓ You speak English fluently and are willing to learn the language of your hosting church or institution.
- ✓ You are willing to serve and work hard when required.
- ✓ You have the readiness to go through good and difficult times.
- ✓ You integrate in a congregation with different cultural backgrounds.

Who is financing the program?

UEM is covering flight tickets to/from hosting country including visa fees. During the duration of their volunteer service, all volunteers will receive a monthly pocket money. Volunteers will receive free accommodations and meals in their placements.

Other preparatory cost will be shouldered by the respective member church. This includes costs for the application of visa (local), travel expenses during visa application/place of origin-airport-place of origin (local flight/bus/taxi) and accommodations (if required).

Available placements

In 2022/2023, 3 placements will be available in Africa and Asia.

Activities are manifold, depending on the activities of the hosting institution. They can be related to youth work, Sunday school, child care, elderly care or adult education. Applicants can indicate their preferences according to their skills, but should remain flexible with regard to their placement profile. The hosting congregations are geographically located in Indonesia, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Rwanda, Tanzania, D.R. Congo, Botswana, Namibia and Cameroon.

Tentative program:

South-South volunteers are expected to fully participate in the life and activities of their hosting church or institution. You will stay for 12 months in the hosting church or institution.
