For us Mission means to improve living conditions based on our Christian belief. Faith, health, education, justice and peace are themes of relevance and importance for us, in Africa, Asia and Germany. Our projects and programs reflect these priorities. In recent years, we have developed into an international network of churches and diaconia with a modern and up-to-date profile.

In the framework of our South-South personal exchange and on behalf of the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies at the Protestant Institute of Art and Social Science (PIASS) at Butare/Ruanda we are looking for a

Lecturer on Theology (m/f/x)
(Preferably Church History)

The PIASS is a Christian institution of higher learning, privately owned by five Rwandan protestant churches, among those the Presbyterian Church in Rwanda (EPR) and the Anglican Church of Rwanda (EAR), member churches of UEM. The objectives of the Faculty of Theology and Religious Studies are, among others, to train theologians and pastors in order that they are able to meet the needs of Church and Society and to promote research in various fields, particularly in theology, education and development through organizing conferences and seminars.

Your Tasks:
- Preparing and teaching all related modules/units at all levels of study (BA, Postgraduate Diploma and MA).
- Supervising and examining students’ dissertations
- Developing new programs and writing project proposals
- Collaborating closely with other Faculties, different directorates and services of PIASS
- Making proposals for new partnerships for the Faculty/PIASS
- Offering a service to the community for promoting development, reconciliation and fighting against poverty.

Your Qualifications:
- PhD in theology, preferably in Church history
- Professional experience of some years of teaching at a university
- Ecumenical and international experience
- Excellent language skills in English.

The secondment will be for a 3 years’ period. Extension for a second term may be considered.

Please send your application (motivation letter, CV and relevant certificates in one PDF document) by email to Mrs. Heike Rees personal@vemission.org until 15.01.2022.
